EVANGELISTIC EFFORT AT M. E. CHURCH MEETING SUCCESS

Much Good Being Accomplished By Special Effort at Third Street M.
E. Church—Chorus Grows Better Each Evening.

The evangelistic services at the Third Street M. E. Church are getting to the point where people are being reached for definite good. At the conclusion of a very impressive sermon last evening several signified their desire to live the Christian life. During the singing of the heart-reaching invitation song "Almost Persuaded" by Mr. Carl Dodds many came to the altar seeking the better life and to pray for the success of the meeting. Those interested in the success of the revival effort are much encouraged at the turn in the tone of the meetings. From now on good results may be expected from the faithful work done.

The work of the big chorus last evening was par excellence. Carl Dodds has once more proven himself a master at the job. That a chorus of such proportions and that would respond so well to every demand made upon it by the leader should be organized under such circumstances seems nothing short of remarkable. All due credit to Carl Dodds as director and Miss Hurd as manager. This splendid organization should by all means be continued. It can be made a big asset to the church.

"The Crucifixion" will be the sermon topic for this evening. The special music number will be "Sweeter As The Days Go By" sung by a mixed quartet.

The choir director announced that at Sunday morning's service it was planned to have the children of the Children's Department of the Sunday School under the supervision of Miss Hurd to render several selections. There are a fine lot of children in this department. Folks love to hear the children sing and there will no doubt be a great crowd at that service.

CARLISLE WANTS FOUR CAP- TURED GERMAN GUNS

Carlisle, Ky., January 29.—James Tilton, of the Carlisle Mercury, and several prominent citizens of Carlisle have taken up with Senators Beckham and Martin and Congressman W. J. Fields, the proposition to secure four of the cannon captured from the Germans as ornaments for the court house square in Carlisle. The representatives have informed the citizens of their willingness to co-operate in the movement.

WHITE-FIELDS
Mr. Henry E. Fields, aged 22, of Ewing and Miss Grace A. White, aged 19, of Robertson county, were married in the County Clerk's office this morning by County Judge H. P. Purnell. Mr. Fields is a returned soldier.

MAYSVILLE IS PRACTICALLY FREE OF INFLUENZA NOW

County and City Health Officer Reports Only One New Case of Influenza in Maysville Yesterday—Fifteen in the County.

The danger of influenza in the city of Maysville is now practically passed, according to Dr. J. S. Locke, County and City Health Officer, this morning. He reported that only 15 new cases of the disease were reported to him yesterday. His reports show that 15 of these new cases were in the county while only one was in the city.

Conditions in the city have been growing better for the past two weeks Dr. Locke says, and they are now very encouraging. The health officer says there is now no possible danger of any great spread of the disease from the city and that before the close of the present week he expects the situation to be cleared up just as well in the county although the disease has been more stubborn to fight in the county this time than it has in the city.

Dr. Locke this morning said there is now no possible danger in coming to Maysville to transact business and that those few cases of influenza which are still hanging on here are reported as doing very nicely. Very few deaths from the disease either in city or county have been reported during this week.

A REMARKABLE RECORD

Mrs. Ben M. Kirkland, formerly of this county but for some years past living at Sevenmile, Ohio, has set a high mark for patriotic work. Although 77 years of age, in the 8 months preceding the signing of the armistice she had knitted 67 pairs of socks for the soldiers, besides doing a good deal of sewing for the Red Cross. If any other lady of her age can make a better showing we shall be glad to hear from them. — Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.

TOBACCO SHOW INCREASE

Washington, January 30.—Leaf tobacco held by manufacturers and dealers January 1, the Census Bureau reported today, was 1,234,834,396 pounds, an increase of about 58,000 pounds, compared with the same date last year. The total included 254,309,051 pounds of cigar-type tobacco, an increase of about 30,000 pounds, and 979,525,345 pounds of imported types, an increase of 8,000 pounds.

INQUIRES ABOUT MASON CITIZEN

Chief of Police Harry A. Ort is in receipt of a letter from Miss Rebecca Asbury, of Oklahoma City, Okla., inquiring of her uncle, Mr. Gordon Asbury is still a resident of Mason county. Mr. Asbury is one of the county's most substantial farmers and the letter received from his niece has been mailed him by Chief Ort.

COL. I. M. LANE DIES AT HIS HOME TODAY AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

Last of the Founders of Ruggles' Campmeeting Passes to His Reward—Pneumonia Proves Fatal to One of City's Best Men.

Colonel I. M. Lane died at his home in East Second street this morning about 10 o'clock after an illness of little more than a week of pneumonia. This announcement brings grief to hundreds not only in Maysville and Mason county but all over Northeastern Kentucky where Colonel Lane was well known and much loved. His splendid life had touched many during his life-long stay in Maysville and all who knew him and had come in contact with him are grieved at the announcement of his death.

Mr. Lane was born on June 18, 1840, and was therefore in his 79th year. During his young manhood he was a very reckless youth and many have heard him tell of how he became such a prohibition advocate. He said that when he was a young man, he and several other young men who had just a little too much liquor decided that they would go around to "Billy Seddon's Mill" the nickname for the Third Street M. E. Church, and break up a temperance meeting. They went, but instead of breaking up the meeting all of the young men were so impressed that they signed the pledge and since that time Mr. Lane has been an ardent supporter of Prohibition. Although a Democrat prior to that time, he has since voted the Prohibition ticket in all national elections, being the only Prohibition voter in Mason county for years. The old pledge he signed on that night is preserved and at his request will be framed and hung in the Sunday School room at the Third Street M. E. Church.

No one has been found who can remember when "Ike" Lane was elected Superintendent of the Sunday School of the Third Street church but it has been between 35 and 40 years ago and he died in the harness. Although a very active member of all departments of the church in his younger days, he loved the Sunday School more and was more active in that department than in any other in recent years.

It was one of his requests before death that his funeral be held in the Third Street Church on Sunday and that all of the members of the Sunday School be given a prominent place at the service. He also requested that the little tots of the school, who he loved so dearly and who loved him so much, be furnished with carnations, his favorite flower, to be thrown into his casket.

Complete arrangements for his funeral were made by him some time ago. It was his request that his friend, Rev. F. W. Harrop, preach the funeral and that a male quartet sing a number of songs of his own selection. At his request, his son-in-law, Mr. Boyd K. Muse, will sing as a solo his favorite hymn at the funeral.

Mr. Lane was first married on July 8, 1869, to Miss Carrie Morris and to this union there were born six children—three daughters and three sons. All of the sons died in childhood but the three daughters survive. They are: Mrs. Stanley Lawwill, of Indianapolis, Ind., Mrs. Boyd K. Muse, of Indianapolis, Ind., and Mrs. R. B. Griffith, of Vincennes, Ind. Besides the immediate family he is survived by twelve grandchildren and three great grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Mary Libbey, of Kirksville, Ind., and one half-brother, Mr. Wilson Lane, of this city.

Mr. Lane is the last of the founders of Ruggles Campmeeting and was one of the first to build a cottage at the camp grounds in 1873. He has been president of the Board of Directors of the company since its establishment and was Vice President for Mason county of the Old Settlers' Association.

For many years Mr. Lane was in the general contracting business in Maysville, first under the firm name of Lane & Worrick and later he formed a partnership with Mr. J. D. Easton under the firm name of Lane & Easton. Some of Maysville's most imposing buildings stand as monuments to his ability as a builder. Among them are the First Baptist church, the Washington Theater, the Maysville High School building, the American Tobacco Company's plants and many others.

His second marriage was on September 26, 1908, to Miss Lottie Ryder, who survives him. To this union there were no children born.

He was a prominent member of DeKalb Lodge of Odd Fellows and also a member of Pisgah Encampment I. O. O. F.

The exact time of the funeral, which will be held next Sunday, has not yet been decided upon but it is probable that it will be held in the morning at the Sunday School hour.

INFLUENZA CONTINUES TO DECREASE

Influenza in Maysville and Mason county continues to show considerable decrease according to reports received by the Health Officer yesterday and today. New cases are very few in number and these are of a very light form. The County Health Officer is now of the opinion that the disease has about run its course this time in this county.

PLANS FOR POULTRY SHOW GO FORWARD

The show committee of the Mason County Poultry Association is making much progress on plans for the big poultry show to be held during the first of February. Already some very valuable prizes have been secured and the committee promises that some of the best birds in the country will be on exhibit.

POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE WED IN COVINGTON TODAY

Miss Almedia Huff Becomes the Bride of Mr. George K. Burrows—School Days Courtship Ends in Marriage.

Mr. George K. Burrows, of this city, assistant National Bank Examiner, and Miss Almedia Huff, daughter of Mr. Charles Huff, of Poplar street went to Covington today where they will be married this afternoon. They were accompanied by their mutual friend, Miss Addie Boyd.

This marriage is the culmination of a pretty courtship begun when both were students in the Maysville High School.

The bride is a splendid young lady of many attractive traits of character. For some time she has been employed by the Adams Express Company in this city and there has made for herself many friends.

The groom is an industrious young man, the son of Mr. George Burrows, of this city, and an expert mathematician who has won for himself a splendid position with the government through his special ability.

The happy young couple will return to Maysville to make this city their home and will receive congratulations of their hundreds of friends upon their return.

HEAVY ENGINE ON C. & O. IS UPTURNED BY DERAIL

Three Wrecking Crews Required to Clear Up Wreck of Engine and
One Car at Wellsburg This Morning.

One of the heaviest types of engines on the C. & O. railroad was derailed at Wellsburg station, just below here this morning at about six o'clock when the train ran through a derail and was toppled over.

Only the engine and one car were wrecked but the engine was so heavy and the wreck so unhandy to handle that three wrecking crews were necessary to clear the track. The west bound track was tied up practically all day on account of the wreck. The heavy engine was thrown over on its side and it was a great wonder that the engineer or fireman were not injured but both jumped for their lives and escaped even a scratch.

LETTER RETURNED SAYS LABAN FARROW WAS INJURED

Some time ago a local man wrote a letter to Mr. Laban Farrow, Maysville man with the army in France, and today the letter was returned to the writer. Upon the face of the envelope there were marks of several Army Post Offices and in red ink was marked "wounded." It had not before been known here that Mr. Farrow was wounded in action.

PROSECUTION HAS MANY WIT- NESSES IN JUVENILE CASE

The local officers have been busy for the past several days getting ready for the trial of Mr. Thomas Valentine in Juvenile Court Saturday on a charge of contributing to Juvenile Delinquency. It is understood that many boys who have been taking tobacco in the tobacco district have been summoned as witnesses in the case.

IMPROVING FROM PAINFUL FALL

Mrs. Ella Haughey, of East Second street, is improving from injuries received several days ago when she fell down stairs at her home. For a time it was thought Mrs. Haughey had suffered a fractured skull but it has developed that the injury was not so serious.

JOHN HEFFERNAN IN THE GOOD OLD U. S. A.

Mr. Owen Heffernan, of East Sixth street, this morning received a telegram from his son, John, saying that he had arrived at Newport News from overseas and that he would be mustered out of the service shortly and return to his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Graham of St. Louis, arrived Tuesday night on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Sallie Graham, of East Second street who remains seriously ill.

EFFORT MADE TO HAVE AUTOMOBILE ROUTE TO MAYSVILLE

Attention of Post Office Department
Is Called to Splendid Route For Auto Mail Line From Cincinnati to Maysville.

The following letter was sent to Hon. James I. Blakesie, Fourth Assistant Postmaster General, at Washington, D. C., a few days ago, by the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

"We read in the attached clipping regarding your promise of sixty motor mail routes for Ohio, and as we have heard nothing of your endeavors along this line in our state, we thought it might be well for us to call your attention to the fact that a mighty good opportunity for the establishment of one of these mail routes, presents itself in route No. 680 in the Blue Book.

"Route No. 680, as you will note, is a seventy mile stretch of road through one of the richest farming territories in the United States, and is untouched by railroads.

"You will note that the route starts at Cincinnati, passes through Newport, Ky., through Cold Springs to Alexandria, thence through Charleville, Grant Lick, Peach Grove and Fribbles, Cross Roads to Caddo, Berlin, Powersville, Germantown, Fernleaf and through Moransburg to Maysville.

"We shall be glad to lend you what effort we can in looking toward the establishment of this mail route, and hope that we may be privileged to be of service to you."

The following communication was received today by the Chamber of Commerce in answer to the above.

"My dear Mr. Dodds: I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 20th instant, with particular reference to the establishment of rural motor truck service in the vicinity of Maysville. I have noted with interest the various statements made by you also the circular regarding the "Gateway to the Bluegrass Region of Kentucky" and there is no doubt but what a motor truck route in this locality would prove successful.

"However, the extension of the service at this time will depend entirely upon the action of Congress in providing sufficient appropriation to permit of the continuance in operation of the existing service and the establishment of additional routes. It is impossible to state at this time the action which it may be possible to take in the vicinity of Maysville, looking to the establishment of Motor Truck Service."

PRAYER MEETING TONIGHT

The regular mid week prayer meeting will be held at the First Baptist Church this evening at the regular time. Following the prayer service there will be a meeting of the Teachers' Training class which is now being resumed by the pastor.

ALL KENTUCKY RACETRACKS PURCHASED BY A SYNDICATE

Syndicate of Kentucky Breeders Buys
Latonia and Douglas Park and Obtains Option on Others.

Kentucky's four famous tracks for thoroughbred racing are to become consolidated under a single management, and three of the tracks, the Lexington, Churchill Downs and Latonia, will be operated beginning with the spring racing season by a syndicate of breeders—all Kentucky men—with a purpose of putting Kentucky racing on a higher plane, it was announced Wednesday night.

The announcement was made by Senator Thomas A. Combs, who has conducted negotiations for weeks, following the conclusion of the transaction by which the new management, headed by former United States Senator Johnson N. Camden, of Versailles, becomes owner of the Latonia and Douglas Park tracks.

The combination of breeders now holds options on the Kentucky Association Churchill Downs at Lexington, and the Churchill Downs course at Louisville, which will be taken over in the near future, according to an authenticated statement from members of the new management.

The purchase of the Latonia and Douglas Park tracks was outright, and includes the good will of the former owners, the entire racing plants and equipment.

The complete deal for the four tracks, considered the greatest step toward progress made in the modern history of racing in the home state of the thoroughbred, involves virtually two million dollars.

MACHINES MUST HAVE NEW LICENSE TAGS

Owners of automobiles have been given plenty of time to procure from the state department of motor vehicles the new 1919 automobile tags. Since the first of the year the officials have not attempted to enforce the state law but now that every one has been given a reasonable time the law will be enforced rigidly in Maysville and it will be hardly safe for an automobile to appear on the streets without the new 1919 license tags.

TOBACCO RECOVERED

Chief of Police Harry A. Ort yesterday recovered a large amount of tobacco said to have been stolen by youngsters and then sold. The tobacco will be held in the possession of the court as evidence and later returned to those from whom it was stolen if it is possible to locate the owners of the majority of it.

COUNCIL MEETS MONDAY

Regular monthly meeting of the City Council will be held on next Monday evening. There is nothing of very special importance to come before the city fathers at this meeting as new business but there are several important matters in the hands of committees.

STANLEY BREAKS RECORDS AS PAR- DONING GOVERNOR

Stanley's Records of Pardons Fill Volume Size Dictionary and Says He's Unshamed of Showing.

Frankfort, Ky., January 29.—Gov. Stanley is the best pardoner Kentucky has ever had. He admits as much, and seemingly glories in the distinction.

In point of the number of criminals freed through the exercise of executive clemency he even has it on Gov. John Young Brown, who, on one occasion, as a reason for liberating a man, wrote opposite the criminal's name on the pardon journal: "He was my friend."

Gov. Stanley has granted so many pardons, or commutations of sentence, that long ago he ceased to keep count of the number. Nobody in his office knows, his secretary, Miss Minnie Mahler, explaining today that it would require a week to go through the journal and find out.

"It is the size of a dictionary," the Governor added. "Some of my enemies broke into my office and tried to steal it on one occasion. I have not the slightest idea as to the number of names it contains."

The Governor was careful in some respects in exercising clemency. For instance, he pointed out today, that it was his impression that he had never granted a pardon to a liquor law violator. During the little over three years that he has been in office he has been a wary observer of the inexorable approach of temperance, and has "watched his step" in that connection. He has freed any number of men convicted of murder, however, and never batted an eye. Why should he, the Governor asserted, after investigating each individual case and ascertaining that the trial judge and jury were wrong in their conclusions?

SPECULATORS ASK FOR SHARE IN PROFIT ON TOBACCO

In the Mason Circuit Court this afternoon well known speculators brought suit against other dealers who delivered nearly 100,000 pounds of tobacco to the Maysville market asking to share in the profits of the tobacco delivered and sold. The local speculators state that a profit of approximately $8,000 will be made on the tobacco and they are entitled to share in this profit to the extent of one half. Because service had not yet been made, the names of the parties in the suit were not made public.

Editor Hiram Duley, of the Flemingsburg Times-Democrat, was in Maysville today on business.

GOOD TREATMENT GIVEN AMERICANS BY THE GERMANS

Sergeant Harry Miller, Former Resident, Tells of His March to the Rhine With the Army of Occupation.

Miss Emma Luman has just received the following very interesting letter from Sergeant Harry Miller, former resident of Maysville, now with the American army of occupation in Germany:

Sgt. Harry C. Miller,
U. S. Army,
Bacharach on the Rhine,
December 13, 1918.

Dear Emma:
At last I have a chance to thank you for your very welcome letter. We have been on the move so much and writing paper has been so scarce keeping up with letter writing has been a problem. It sure makes a fellow feel good to find letters from back home awaiting him when he is relieved on the front and sent back of the lines for a rest. I don't think it could be called luck to get back we were spared and after going through what we did we are certainly thankful. Our last time out we were under shell fire and rainy weather for thirty days. In our section there were only fifteen men out of sixty-five who returned. When August 15th during our advance at Chateau Thierry I was sent to the hospital where I remained a month and returned to our outfit in time to take part in the big drive at St. Mihiel in the Toul sector, here we scattered the Hun hater and skelter making him leave his ammunition and supplies behind. After being relieved here we were sent to the Verdun sector to clear him out, which we did but here we met with natural defenses in his favor where he planted machine gun nests which hampered our rapid advance, but slowly and surely we drove him back, but without paying the price with some poor mother's sons. But our boys were brave and did their duty and went to their death with a brave heart.
I don't like to think of what I have gone through and will change the subject to our history making march to the Rhine.

When we were notified that the armistice was signed, everybody was happy thinking that it wouldn't be long until we would be on our way back home. No such luck for the Third Division. The big generals got their heads together and decided that on account of our big part played in this war we should be in the big parade to the Rhine, so here we are, but not yet at our journey's end as we are advised we have to hike sixty more kilometers before we are through and we start early tomorrow morning with bright prospects for hiking at it is now pouring down rain, I am getting ahead of my hike story so I'll start at the beginning.

We started out November 17th from Loisy, France, where we had been resting. Every town we marched through we were given a royal welcome especially through the Lorraine province. Here the people met us at the outskirts of their towns and marched in line with us cheering and waving flags. Some made our flaps out of paper and pasted or pinned the stars on. Some had half a dozen stars while others a dozen stars while others had more or less. Where we were led for the night we were put in hay barns but we were so tired any old place was good. At some places we were given hot coffee when we would ask for water to fill our canteens. At one place where we billeted our quarters were so crowded I asked through one of the boys who could sneak French if I could sleep on the floor in the house adjoining which I found to have a German family on one side and a French family on the other a long hall separating the families. The German family took me in gave my friend and me hot coffee who fixed a bed for us. Later on two other boys came in and we placed a mattress on the floor for them. The next morning before we left our canteens were filled with hot coffee made out of roasted barley and when we offered pay none would be accepted. The only way we could pay was to leave some money on a shelf where it would be found after we left which we did.

We naturally thought we would be received in Germany with a snub nose but we found out different the very first time we billeted in a German town. The Luxemburg people were very friendly and during our whole time in Rhineland province or state they have been exceptionally good to us, in fact much more so than the French have been when we were back behind the lines. They don't want to charge us double the price for eats like the French. We don't talk war unless they start the subject. Four of us had some potato fritters made at one place and after supper we chatted awhile. One of our quartette could speak good German and we learned our man of the house worked in an ammunition plant at Coblenz since 1916. He told us at present there was no German government everything and everybody was in uproar and a revolution was sure to come shortly.

The people were not being given their food allowance as they had been, during the last of the war simply because there was no one to look after them. His family had not been given their sugar allowance for some time and that the returning soldiers took half of what food they had. He smiled when he told us about word being passed among the towns that when the Americans came they plundered and stole. We told him what we would get if we stole anything.

Emma I have traveled quite a bit through the States and have seen some pretty scenery but nothing can compare to what I have seen the last few days marching. This town is laid out in a deep valley with only one street and just room enough on each side for the houses, you can look out of your window and see the mountain sides right at you literally covered with vineyards. Old castles dot the scenery here and there and every entrance to the town is through an overhanging stone gate. One house had the date of 1850. Several are covered entirely with slate, the kind we use for roofing. The approach to the town is down a winding mountain road all of which can be seen at several points. I saw our whole regiment and part of another regiment at one point which sure looked pretty. The returning German soldiers who lived in this town fell out of ranks and went to their homes instead of going on with their army to help keep order. I wish I could send you a little souvenir of this place but on account of so much other mail matter souvenirs are not allowed unless something in the post card line.

The Rhine river at this point is not near as large as the Ohio but there are small river boats plying it. I am told that for some distance from its mouth that ocean steamers travel it. Everybody was anxious to see the Rhine the night we arrived and early the next morning the bank was crowded with soldiers washing their faces and hands. I'm running out of paper so will have to close with best wishes to yourself and all my old school chums.

Sincerely,
SGT. HARRY C. MILLER,
U. S. Army

THE TRACTOR AND THE OPERATOR

Three years ago I purchased a 12-25 tractor of a well-known make. At that time I had a competent man to operate it. With this machine we did every kind of work possible to do with a tractor. This work was done entirely satisfactory and the tractor worked to my entire satisfaction for two years, when I had to give up this man to the war and employ a man whom I knew to be less competent.

This new man was careless as well as incompetent, and the first week of his work with the tractor he had a breakdown that cost me $150 for repairs, besides the time lost and cost of putting them on. After repairing the tractor he seemed never to be able to make it do the desired work, as it had formerly done. He was slow to get it started and had many things for which to stop, so it seemed.

This condition went on for about six months, when the tractor went dead. He tinkered and tinkered with it about $30 worth and finally gave it up. I tried everywhere to get a man to come and start it up. After five weeks I finally got a garage man to come at a cost of $30 more, and he discovered that the old magneto was worn out. This was not unreasonable to me, as any machine might wear out. I got the new magneto, had it put on, and still no power. I had the same garage man to come back, $30 more. This time he found that his inspection had not been thorough and that with some packing for the cylinder heads and some trifling repairs to the carburetor it would go o. k. These we put on and now she seems just as when new.

With all of this repair work my new man has learned a lot about the machine and is now a competent tractor driver. He gets in full time with it, but I am highly pleased with him and his tractor work.

There was a time among all of this trouble when this tractor could have been purchased from me for much less than half of the price I would now take for it.

DRAFT BOARDS ARE CLOSING UP RECORDS

"The last stage of the work of the Selective Service organization has been reached and I have given my assurance, supported by my unserving confidence in the ability of the State headquarters and the local boards to perform the most strenuous duties, that the work of the local boards in the closing up of the records would be completed on or before February 15." This statement was made by Provost Marshal General Crowder. It was embodied in a bulletin received by draft boards of the nation yesterday. It is declared that there are approximately 300 delinquents in each board who either failed to file their questionnaires or failed to appear for physical examination.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Many Aches and Pains of Maysville People.

As one weak link weakness a chain so may weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking-down.

Overwork strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and generally when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers. Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills frequently come, and there is an ever-increasing gravel or fatal Bright's disease. When the kidneys fail there is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. Maysville testimony is proof of their effectiveness. Mrs. Harry Mann, 495 W. Second St., says: "About two years ago, I suffered from an attack of kidney trouble that had lasted for a long time. I had a dull, constant ache in the small of my back and the pains were often sharp. I was also dizzy and felt tired and languid. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and I haven't been bothered by kidney trouble since. I gladly advise anyone to get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the Chenoweth Drug Co., if troubled by their kidneys."

Mrs. Mann is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mrs. Mann had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60 cents at all stores. New Toll Rates Effective

January 21st, 1919

Order No. 2495 of the Telephone and Telegraph Administration issued by the Post Master General at Washington December 13th, a new toll rate is ordered effective January 21, 1919. According to our interpretation of this order the toll rate will be classified as follows:

The day rate applies between the hour of 4:30 a. m. and 8:30 p. m. Evening rate between 8:30 p. m. and 12 midnight for station-to-station messages only, and shall be approximately 50 per cent. less than the day rate, but no night rates less than 25 cents.

The night rate between 12 midnight and 4:30 a. m. shall be approximately 75 per cent. less than the day rate, but no night rates less than 25 cents.

Person-to-person messages shall be approximately 25 per cent. higher than station-to-station calls. Calls which require service of a messenger shall take the appointment rate, plus cost of messenger fee.

A report charge of approximately 25 per cent. of the station-to-station rate will be made on all person-to-person calls, when person desired is not in or will not talk or if calling party is out when connection is completed within one hour after filing time.

KENTUCKY PASTOR DEFIES HEALTH LAWS

Rev. Boyce Taylor Much In Types
Lately, Creates New Excitement
By Defy of Health Authorities.

Murray, Ky., January 29—Following a stormy session in county court here today, which resulted in the assessment of a fine of $100 and costs against the Rev. Boyce Taylor for conducting services in the Murray Baptist church last Sunday in violation of Board of Health orders, the indefatigable pastor was still unconvinced, and tonight he carried out his threat made at the courthouse today that there would be "prayer meeting as usual" tonight. There was a fair-sized crowd in attendance, too.

The authorities were on hand, took the name of every person in attendance and declared that there would be a warrant issued for every one of them tomorrow.

In his trial today Taylor refused to have a lawyer, but harangued the court for 45 minutes, declaring that the law had no right to close the doors of a church, as he held that the church took precedence over the law.

He insisted that, in spite of the fine and the order of the court, he would continue to hold services, and that the usual Wednesday night prayer meeting would take place, as well as the services next Sunday.

Taylor was warned by County Attorney Hays that he would be arrested again if he continued to defy the law and that warrants would be sworn out for every person who attended the services while the influenza ban is on.

The police of Murray have declared they will support the sheriff in his efforts to see that the law is not violated.

EAST END STREETS NOW VERY DUSTY

East Second street is now just about as dusty as it was in the olden days of the mud road. The brick streets have not been cleaned for some time and a large amount of dirt has accumulated which is whipped up by the many passing automobiles. Street Commissioner Smith says that his force of men will be at work on this street in a very short time.

TOBACCO MARKET REMAINS FIRM ON ALL GOOD GRADES

Prices Again Today Are High With Only a Medium Quality of Tobacco on the Breaks—Warehousemen Report Sales Progressing Well.

There was no change in the prices of good grade tobacco on the Maysville market today according to warehousemen who say that they are having some of the best sales they have had this season. The offerings for the day are not the best that the market has seen this year but prices remain firm.

Buyers still display an eagerness to get as much of the weed as possible and there is not any likelihood of the price dropping for some time, according to some of the best posted tobacco men on the market.

Despite the fact that the offerings were common there were many good crop averages reported in high figures.

Houses selling reported as follows:

Pounds sold 126,860
High price $90.00
Low price 12.00
Average $43.75

Maysvillians in Returning Dough Boys
Who Cheer as Ship Docks at Newport News.

Newport, News, Va., January 30—Cheering and shouting their joy to be back again in the old U. S. A., the boys of Batteries B and C, 325th Field Artillery, came ashore last night from the big transport Zealandia, 13 days after sailing from Bordeaux.

Batteries B and C were trained at Camp Taylor and are made up principally of Kentucky and Indiana men, although numbering also about a score of Ohioans.

After a couple days in the rest camp here they will be sent back to Camp Taylor for muster out.

Among the Maysvillians aboard were John Heffernan and Pierce "Nipsy" Redmond.

Battery C was commanded by Captain E. B. Abbott of Louisville; Battery B by Captain Charles Reese of Rochester, Ind.

These boys of the 325th say they come back to the states better Americans than when they left.

"We know now that ours is the best and greatest country of them all," was the sentiment expressed by half the men.

One of the men looked at his wrist watch, which still carried French time.

"France is five and one-half hours ahead of us by the watch," he said, "but 400 years behind us in progress."

"The way the mass of the people live and work there is like what our grandparents tell us their grandparents did—absolutely primitive."

"A horse cart is the exception in most towns and villages. Most carts are drawn by dogs or oxen, or are pushed by men or women."

"After what we've seen of Europe—and we saw more of it than most units sent abroad—we all are ready to live and die in the United States. It sure is God's own country."

Batteries B and C sailed from New York September 9. They landed in Scotland September 21 and spent some time in a camp near Glasgow. Then they were moved to Winchester, England, and from there to France.

ASKS RETURN OF HOSPITAL UNIT 40

Lexington Physician Asks That Barrow Unit, in Which Local Men Are Serving, Be Returned at Once.

The Lexington Herald says: Lexington is in need of physicians and nurses as well, said Dr. P. H. Clarke, president of the Board of Health, Wednesday night on his return after an absence from Lexington.

"I believe this city has furnished more physicians and nurses to the government than any city of its size. If my memory does not fail me," said Dr. Clarke, "twelve of our physicians and nearly 35 nurses are still in the service."

Believing that the government is through with their services, Dr. Clarke has sent General Gorgas, head of the Federal Health Commission, a telegram, asking that he release Base Hospital No. 40 from war service so that they can be returned as soon as possible.

"Health conditions could be much better than they are," said Dr. Clarke, "and while the influenza conditions are improved, the physicians and nurses of the Barrow Unit are needed at home, as reports tell us that there are but a few soldiers ill at Salisbury Court Hospital, England." Baltimore has sent a similar request to General Gorgas for the return of the John Hopkins Base Hospital Unit.
